

Department of Forest Ecology and Management

Zsofia Reka Stangl
Programme Studies Director

Forest Ecology and Sustainable Management

Forests worldwide are under increasing pressure to provide multiple products, ecosystem services, and to play a key role for bio-based economy.

EU/EEA/Swiss citizens apply now

PROGRAMME INFORMATION

FACTS & REQUIREMENTS

CONTENT

CAREER

FOREST HISTORY - Human utilisation and vegetation dynamics (BI1414)

- First half autumn semester
- Course leaders: Lars Östlund & Kelley Bassett Gundale
- 15 ECTS

FOREST ECOSYSTEM ECOLOGY (BI1369)

- Second half autumn semester
- Course leader: Maja Sundqvist
- 15 ECTS

SILVICULTURE - The science of forest stand management (SG0272)

- First half spring semester
- Course leaders: Eliza Maher
Hasselquist
- 15 ECTS

SUSTAINABLE MANAGEMENT OF BOREAL FORESTS (SG0245)

- Second half spring semester
- Course leaders: Lenka Kuglerová
- 15 ECTS advanced course (A1F)
- knowledge at advanced level
 - 15 credits Forest science or
 - 15 credits Biology or
 - 15 credits Soil science

SUSTAINABLE FORESTRY AND LAND- USE MANAGEMENT IN THE TROPICS (SG0258)

- Second half autumn semester
- Course leaders: Aida Bargués-Tobella
- 15 ECTS (Biology, Forest Science)
- Distance course

Analysis of Environmental Data 1 & 2

(SV0019; SV0020)

- Part time courses (autumn and spring semester)
- 7.5 HP
- Individual learning + Meetings with instructors
- 2: 7.5 hp in data analysis methods

Want more specific information?

Visit the Master's program on the SLU Student web page.

Questions?

Please contact the Program Study Director:

Zsofia R. Stangl

zsofia.reka.stangl@slu.se

