To do before the study start

What happens next? An overview

Scholarships

- Application deadline has already passed for both the SLU and Swedish Institute scholarship.
- Students granted scholarships have been notified.
- You need to apply to the programme again next year if you cannot pay the tuition fee now.
- No scholarships available after the study start.

Pay the tuition fees

- Students admitted in first admissions round (April) have already paid.
- Students admitted in the second admissions round have to request payment instructions from tuitionfees@slu.se.
- Deadline for students admitted in the second application round is 17 August.
- EU/EEA and Swiss citizens do not have to pay any tuition fees.

Residence permit for higher education

- Residence permit for higher education – Swedish Migration Agency.
www.migrationsverket.se/English
- You must pay the tuition fees before you can apply for a residence permit.
- Process time: 3-5 months.
- Citizens from an EU/EEA country or Switzerland do NOT have to apply for a residence permit.
- Note that SLU cannot affect or have influence on other authorities' decisions.

Conditionally admitted

- Conditions must be fulfilled no later than two weeks after the programme starts (12 September).
- Upload your qualifying degree diploma on www.universityadmissions.se.
- Notify the Admissions Office of SLU, when your diploma is uploaded.
admissions@slu.se

Housing

- Fee-paying students (admitted in April) are guaranteed housing for yourself.
Note: You need to pay for the housing yourself even if you are guaranteed housing.
- Other students need to arrange housing on their own.
- See campus information on New SLU student web page for list of landlords at our campuses and nearby cities.
- Housing@slu.se
